White Chocolate Peppermint Pretzels

Sometimes we just need a little treat, either for ourselves or a little something to deliver to friends and neighbors. These little pretzel sticks are sweet, salty, minty, and just the right thing with a cup of hot cocoa. You may not even get to this point (since they're so tasty), but they also look pretty wrapped in a mug with cellophane as a little gift to sweeten someone else's day.

Shop at Dollar Tree – Here's What You'll Need:

- Pretzel Sticks
- 1 Bar of White Chocolate, 1.55 oz.
- 3 - 4 Peppermint Candy Canes or 1 Big Peppermint Stick
- Plastic Sandwich Bag
- Waxed Paper

Easy Step-by-Step Directions:

1. Coarsely crush peppermints by placing them in a sealed plastic bag and whacking with a mallet or rolling pin. Pour broken pieces onto a shallow plate.
2. In a microwave-safe juice glass (this will make dipping easier), heat white chocolate in 15-second increments, stirring each time until well melted and smooth.
3. Dip pretzel sticks halfway into the white chocolate and coat well, then roll in the peppermint bits.
4. Cool on waxed paper until set.
5. Enjoy with coffee or hot cocoa, wrap in cellophane as a gift, or leave in a mug on a cocktail table as an after-dinner treat!
