Table Lights by the Sea, by Cherry M.

Cherry M. from Collierville, Tennessee, submitted her idea for Table Lights by the Sea in August's "Crafter's Challenge" Contest. Cherry's craft was voted as the Grand Prize winner! With a couple of items from Dollar Tree and a few easy steps, you can have a piece of the sea in your home, too!

Shop at Dollar Tree – Here's What You'll Need:

- Glass Vases or Candleholders
- Super Glue
- Glass Luster Gems (your choice if colors)
- Tealight Candles

Easy Step-by-Step Directions:

1. Clean the outside of your vase and/or candleholder. This will make sure the glue sticks and holds well.
2. Place a dab of glue on a luster gem, and place it on the vase/candleholder.
3. Repeat step three until your vase or candleholder is completely covered in luster gems.
4. Add a tealight and watch the warm glow of the sea flicker in your home!

Fun Tips:

- Cherry used various sizes and shapes of vases for an eclectic look. You can do the same, or select a few of the same vases for a more traditional feel.
- Cherry used a different color luster gem on each of her vases. You can select one color that matches your décor for all of your vases, or use multiple colors on one vase for a fun and festive look.
